STEPHEN CLARKE (FEI5*)

is currently the FEI Judge General, a dressage trainer, as well as coach and past FEI competitor. His vast wealth of knowledge brings out the best in every horse and rider combination, and is easily absorbed by the auditors. Training level through Grand Prix welcome to apply. One lesson per rider. Take advantage of Stephen's keen eye and experience working with the top dressage riders in the world as he returns from being a member of the ground jury at the Rio 2016 Olympic Games.

FROM PAST ATTENDEES

"I am grateful to have ridden with Stephen Clarke. Once again, he provided top quality instruction with clarity, fairness, patience and consistency. . . . Be sure to get your spot!"

"This was great opportunity for my young 5yr old gelding to be seen by such a renowned FEI judge. He focused on relaxation and straightness and developing a connection to the bridle all which is so essential in developing a happy, willing prospect."

"Mr. Clarke has an incredible ability to get right to the root of an issue and to be able to make a significant change. He is such a down to earth, unassuming, kind, yet firm clinician."
