Avant-Garde Equestrian Farm
Luskville, QC

October 24 & 25, 2015

LAUREN SPRIESER is a USDF Gold, Silver and Bronze Medalist, and a nationally-known Grand Prix rider. A veteran of three NAJYRCs and four "Brentina Cup" national Young Adult Grand Prix Championships, Lauren has consistently produced horses from green to FEI, including five to Grand Prix. Her students compete with success from the grassroots to the international levels in several disciplines, on a wide range of horse types. Her students have contested the USDF National Championships, the NAJYRC and the Rolex CCI*. Lauren is a high-energy and experienced teacher. She writes a popular blog for the Chronicle of the Horse, as well as training articles for Dressage Today, Practical Horseman and Horse Illustrated.
